

The Circular

on the conduct of the 2nd Inclusive Dance International Charity Festival

We invite you to take part in the activities of the 2nd Inclusive Dance International Charity Festival, which will be organized in the Russian regions and in other countries from 1 May to 22 November, 2014.

The aim of the festival is to help disabled children and young people overcome social isolation, find new friends and develop creativity.

The dancers and dance groups of children and young people under 35 can take part in the festival's competitive program with an inclusive dance, which can be performed by a pair (one partner has to be a person with disability) or by dance group. The item with inclusive dance is recorded and then the link with video and an application form are to be sent to the festival organizing committee. Applications should be sent since 1 May until 20 September. The winners of the competitive stage will be able to participate in the gala concert on 22 November 2014 in the Crocus Expo International Exhibition Center, Moscow.

You can download the pdf application form from the website and send it to info@inclusive-dance.ru or fill in the online form on www.inclusive-dance.ru.

Additional information about the competition you can find in the Provision of the festival – <http://inclusive-dance.ru/2013-04-18-08-11-45/polozhenie.html>.

There will be special contests for artists, photographers, film makers, journalists (professional and amateur) who can send their works dedicated to inclusive dance. Applications are admitted from 1 May to 20 October. The winners will have an opportunity to present their works at the Synthesis of Inclusive Art Exhibition which will open on 21 November at the Crocus Expo International Exhibition Center. The participants will be awarded certificates and the winners will receive prizes and presents.

The special contests are conducted under the Provision – <http://inclusive-dance.ru/2013-04-18-08-11-45/spec-konkursy.html>.

Individuals as well as different types of organizations can take part in the international volunteer promotion called "Different in life, united in dance". The aim of the promotion is to involve dancers and volunteers into inclusive creative activities. The promotion is going to be held as part of the festival from 1 May to 20 November in different parts of Russia and abroad.

You can send us (info@inclusive-dance.ru) the information about an inclusive dance event, which you're planning to organize from 1 May to 20 November, 2014. Then we will include this event into the festival's Charity Events Schedule, the information about it will be available for the interested people around the world. The essays about the charity events will be placed on our website and may be included into the Festival's Diary, a printed edition about the festival. The best events will be awarded with special prizes.

Basic types of inclusive dance charity events:

- concert or a fun day for children and young people with disabilities
- inclusive dance classes for children and young people
- educational or methodological workshops for volunteers and specialists in inclusive dance

All the dancing groups, organizations and individuals who participated in the contests and the volunteer promotion can take part in the festival's final events which will be held on 21-22 November, 2014 in the Crocus Expo International Exhibition Center, pavilion 3 on the 3d floor.

21 November (Friday) there will be educational workshops by the best Russian and foreign inclusive dance masters, Synthesis of Inclusive Art Exhibition, discussion platform for the specialists.

22 November (Saturday) there will be presentation forums of the festival's partners and sponsors, gala concert of the contest's winners. The best participants and the winners of the competitive stage together with popular singers, theater and movie stars will perform at the gala concert.

The Festival is held without organization contributions. Participation in the Festival is free of charge.

The residence and meals for the participants of the festival dance contest, who became winners (took the 1st places in their nominations) during two days of their stay for final events in Moscow is paid at the expense of Festival coordinators.

This condition applies only to performers of dance number, who won the contest and not to more than 8 persons from the dance group. The participants pay for their own transportation.

The members of dance groups who didn't become winners pay for their own residence, meals and transportation to the final festival events.
